

Illustrated Catalogue

OF THE

GREAT EXHIBITION OF 1851.

THE EDITOR of the ART-JOURNAL is actively arranging to report very fully the Great Exhibition of the Industry of All Nations: with this view, he is in communication with the leading Manufacturers of Great Britain and Ireland, the Colonies, the United States, France, Belgium, Holland, Austria, Prussia, Saxony, and the other States of Europe,—most of which he has personally visited for the purpose of procuring Drawings and obtaining information.

He proposes to issue Double Numbers of the ART-JOURNAL, Monthly, during Four Months; each Double Number to contain (in addition to the ordinary Letter-press, Engravings, &c.) FIFTY-SIX Pages, comprising about 300 Woodcuts of the best, the most beautiful, and the most suggestive of the Works contributed from all parts of the world, accompanied by brief descriptive and critical remarks.

In the ART-JOURNAL, the pages to contain the Illustrated Catalogue will be paged apart from the ordinary Number—so as to make a separate and distinct Book; it will, however, be bound up and issued with the usual Monthly Parts, and for those Parts double price will be, necessarily, charged.

For those who are not subscribers to the ART-JOURNAL, the Four Parts will be subsequently issued as a Volume, beautifully bound, and at the advanced price of One Guinea; the cost to Subscribers to the ART-JOURNAL (exclusive of binding) being but Ten Shillings. Covers for binding will be issued to Subscribers at a moderate price.

This Catalogue will be printed by hand, and not by machinery; the Drawings have been made by accomplished Artists, in all instances under the scrutiny of the Manufacturers, and are engraving by Messrs. DALZIEL, NICHOLLS, BASTIN, WHIMPER, JACKSON, COOPER, &c.

They will be as perfect examples of the Art as can be produced by the combined industry and skill of eminent Artists.

The Fourth Part will contain an Engraved Title Page, an Illustrated History of the Building, a Copious Index, and the "Prize Essay," for which One Hundred Guineas have been offered, on the best "mode of rendering the Exhibition practically useful to the British manufacturer."

The work, when completed, will form a permanent record of the Exhibition, and a KEY TO THE MOST MERITORIOUS MANUFACTURES OF ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

PART THE FIRST WILL BE ISSUED ON THE 1ST OF MAY.

OFFICE OF THE ART-JOURNAL, Marlborough-chambers, 49, Pall-mall.

Manufacturers will perceive by the above announcement, that although it will be desirable for the Editor to receive Drawings early, there will be ample time for them to furnish him with such Drawings at any period before the articles are forwarded to the Exhibition; or, indeed, during the first month of their exposition there.

No cost whatever will be incurred by the Manufacturer. The Editor may be communicated with either personally or by letter.
